

A scatter plot of '+' symbols representing data points. The points are arranged in several distinct clusters: a top row of 10 points, a middle row of 10 points, a bottom row of 10 points, and a central column of 10 points. There are also smaller groups of points at the top left, top right, and bottom right.